

Lighting the Way

RID's Region III Conference
July 23-26, 2008
Columbus, Ohio

An invitation is extended to all interested persons to submit a paper for consideration for RID's Region III conference.

Of particular interest to deaf and hearing interpreters are papers representing current research studies related to linguistics, culture, and interpreting; interpreting in various settings, i.e. culturally rich and diverse situations, legal, medical, mental health and religious setting; and preparation training for CDI. Non-interpreting related topics will also be considered. The conference is designing a program around 3 hour blocks of time, however proposals for 6 hour sessions will also be considered.

Presenters will receive: conference registration; overnight accommodation and per diem for the day of presentation; travel reimbursement up to $350; and an honorarium of $300 for a 3 hour presentation. Honorarium for presentations longer than 3 hours will be negotiated.

Submission process

To be considered for this program, submit the following electronically by January 12, 2008:

- 1) The completed Presentation Proposal Form (provided in a separate file).
- 2) A .doc or .pdf file, not exceeding two pages in length, that includes:
 - a. A clear outline of your educational objectives.
 - b. A one-paragraph summary of your proposal for the conference program book.
 - c. A one-paragraph biographical sketch of the presenter(s).
- 3) The presenter(s) resume(s).

Send electronic submissions to Anne Orozco, Program Chair, at anneorozco@aol.com.
Deadline for submission is January 12, 2008.

Questions may be addressed to Richard Laurion at 651-690-6973